Q25 - We welcome your written comments below. What is something/are some things that the instructor does well, e.g., something you hope that the instructor will continue to do in the class in the future? Faculty: Morganna Lambeth Response Rate: 83.33% (10 of 12)
1	This was a really great course! The instructor was really enthusiastic and knowledgable and it made the material seem a lot more interesting. The powerpoints were very clear and helpful and the discussion in class was also really good. Overall, 10/10, loved the course, the teacher, and the material.
2	This instructor does a very good job of organizing lectures and showing enthusiasm for the course material. I hope she continues to have engaging lectures and lively discussions in the future
3	She is very knowledgeable about her field. When I ask questions or go over something, she is able to answer the best way she can.
4	Reflections were very helpful in thinking about the readings Lectures were well-organized and helped me understand reading better Choice of philosophers was good Comments on reflections were very helpful

5	Powerpoints and posting them after class were helpful.
6	Powerpoints are fab. Office hours are a good time. Honest about the things she doesn't know (philosophers outside the scope of the class, tangentially related science things) and doesn't make up things up when asked about them.
7	I was a big fan of Dr. Lambeth's weekly reflection assignments. Having to provide critical responses (as opposed to being quizzed/asked to regurgitate information from the readings) really improved my grasp of the concepts of the course, and Dr. Lambeth's comments on these reflections were also very helpful.
8	I rarely like powerpoints in lectures, but yours were actually very helpful! They were always succinct, to the point, and illuminating. Your slides really helped highlight the major points in the works we read and guide the discussion in class. All the philosophers we read were well chosen and read in an order that helped me appreciate each of their ideas more.
9	I enjoy Dr. Lambeth's powerpoints. They have an interesting wordplay and are also very informative. I like that she numbers the slides and uploads all of them on Blackboard- it makes note taking easy. She also explains the material in an orderly manner. I was really content with the way she led the discussions on Kant and other philosophers discussed in class because some of the material was very dense and haphazard, but she made it all come together. The reflections and the midterm helped me a lot with the final paper too. Dr. Lambeth is readily available and welcomes questions.
10	Dr. Lambeth's lecture slides are beautiful, easy to follow, and very well organized (honestly the best I've seen). I find them and the in-class discussion to be really helpful toward understand the readings. Her enthusiasm and openness to discussion are also great motivators to come to lecture. Her recommended readings were also an incredible help toward writing the final paper, and her positive reminders on how we could work on it actually made me excited to write a ten page research paper.

Q26 - Make a suggestion(s) for improving the course (a criticism alone is not helpful; tell your instructor how you would fix any problem).

1	The aesthetic design of the powerpoints, especially the black and white floral background for Kant, were sometimes distracting in class but I liked that they changed after each unit.
2	Some of the readings were confusing, and I realized I completely misunderstood them after attending the lecture, so it might be useful to post a brief outline or questions to consider, or discuss upcoming readings to help students understand them more fully It might be helpful to put more emphasis on different ways philosophers' ideas might be applied to real situations, such as explaining how Kant might judge current events
3	It would have been helpful to have the slides for the class before we did the readings, so it could have guided our use of the reading materials. Either that, or maybe some study questions we had to go through with the readings so we could see what to look for. That would have been especially helpful on some of the more dense readings that got really confusing at certain times. Also, I love how passionate you are in class discussion, but sometimes how often you walked back and forth or gestured became a distraction to me.
4	I would say change the amount of pages required for the final essay. I know this is college and we have to write long essays, but I feel like 9 pages is too much. Maybe dial it down to about 5-6 pages.
5	I wish that occasionally the instructor provided links to videos that discuss course topics so that not all the instruction is gained solely from power points. There is absolutely nothing wrong with the power points, but it would be nice to have multiple media forms of instruction. I know I occasionally learn difficult topics better if I have a chance to have them explained by multiple different people, because everyone has a different way of teaching. The videos would not even have to be shown in class, just having the resource available of instructor-approved supplemental instruction would be nice.
6	I really don't have any criticisms--your course was truly a pleasure to take. Thank you for being such an enthusiastic, knowledgeable, and inspiring teacher!! :)
7	I felt like this course was very well taught. The only concern I had was that the final grade was heavily dependent on the midterm and final paper, but that doesn't seem at all unfair for a 400 level class.
8	Honestly pretty great. No criticisms. Fashion icon. We love that her name is "Morganna".
